- . For ecological reasons the Gymkhana Ground Trust will not allow any wood that is on the grounds to be used in camp fires. All timber is to be sourced from outside the grounds.

THE VENUE

Marrar is a small but friendly country town between Wagga, Coolamon and Junee. The town has a Petrol Station and Grocery/Fast Food shop and Post Office and Hotel. The area that we are camping on is the Marrar Gymkhana Ground which is off the Marrar Junee Rd You can access the grounds from Short Street or McKelvie's Lane. There is no power, there are septic toilets and town water, also a limited number of small yards for your horse to use or bring your own, there is a shower at the football grounds we are able to use, if you want you can have meals at the hotel.

THE EVENT

There will be horse and pony sections in the full and half marathon

The half marathon / pleasure will be between 20 to 40 kilometers per day.

The full marathon will be run in two sections, one in the morning with a 1 ½ hour break for strapping, vet check and lunch. Then the second section in the afternoon. The distance for each day will be between 60 to 70k

The pre event check will be conducted by a vet on Friday 2 nd July in the afternoon . Time will be set with the vet and it is thought it will be about 3 to 4 PM or by arrangement with organiser

If you need more information about training for endurance please ring: John Moyes 02 4837 3023 - mobile 04282 36 161 or Email moyes@activ8.net.au
