

NSW Show Driving Report

The show season is in full swing with plenty of ag shows having harness classes with a great range of classes. Crookwell Show held on 10th February was well attended with large number of turnouts, some classes having 9 competitors.

Canberra Royal (24th & 25th February) has expanded their harness program so hopefully they will have lots of entries. Sydney Royal starts 23rd March with harness classes and the spectacular evening harness parade is now on Sunday 25th March.

Ellmore club have organised a park drive at the beautiful Mayfield Gardens (Oberon) on 15th April with three (3) classes that cater for a wide range of turnouts.

The 2018 NSW Show Driving Championships are being hosted by the Southern Highlands Carriage Club at their home ground at Bundanoon on 6th May. They have an excellent range of classes and judges.

The 2018 National Show Driving Championships are being hosted by Camden and The Hills Clubs in a joint venture on the 11th November 2018 at Hawkesbury showground.

A heavy harness and a judge's school is planned for May or June 2018 more details to come.

Happy Driving.
